

POLL OF COUNTIES GIVES OLNEY MAJORITY OVER HUNT

Ever since Governor Hunt issued the proclamation of his candidacy for governor, in which he stated that he was constrained to become a candidate in order to save the people from some form of crisis or calamity, the Republican has been endeavoring to ascertain whether the people take the governor as seriously as he sees himself, and whether they have observed the pending crisis the governor pictures. In answer to inquiries, The Republican has received fourteen county reports, and is now in a position to give an estimate of the relative strength of Mr. Olney and the governor in the different counties. The figures were compiled on careful inquiry from consistent, conservative democrats.

Apache—ST. JOHNS—Answering your recent inquiry as to relative strength of Hunt and Olney for governor, will say that Mr. Olney, not being as well known as the governor here, the latter will carry this county by 150.

Navajo—HOLBROOK—Should the vote be taken tomorrow it would result in a tie in Navajo county between Governor Hunt and George Olney.

Cochise—FLAGSTAFF—When inquiry was first begun two weeks ago, found large majority pro-Hunt. Sentiment has undergone radical changes in last few days. Cochise county at present time would give Olney 200 majority.

Mohave—KINGMAN—Mohave county would probably give Hunt 250 majority, although Olney is very popular among the business and cattlemen.

Yavapai—PRESCOTT—After careful inquiry, am able to state that extreme radical element for Hunt. Large majority of farmers and cow men for Olney. Olney will carry Yavapai by 450.

Yuma—YUMA—Yuma county is decidedly for Hunt. Will return him 300 majority.

Gila—GLOBE—Gila county will probably give Hunt a small majority, although Olney's friends claim he will carry the county. This is doubtful. The governor will get 200 majority.

Graham—SAFFORD—Olney will carry Graham county by an easy majority of 600.

Greenlee—CLIFFORD—Hunt is very strong among the miners in Clifton, ten percent of whom have the ballot. Morrell and Metcalfe, the other mining towns, will go for him. Olney is strong among the business men. He is also strong among farmers and cattlemen. Olney will carry Greenlee county by 250 in the primaries.

Cochise—TOMBSTONE—Olney will undoubtedly carry this town and Douglas. Everyone on the San Pedro seems to be for him. He is also popular in Sulphur Springs valley. Governor Hunt is strong in Bisbee. Hunt will carry Cochise county by 1500.

Santa Cruz—NOGALES—Olney will carry Santa Cruz by a small majority; probably 100.

Pima—TUCSON—Sentiment in Pima county decidedly anti-Hunt. It has always been hard to carry this county for him. Olney's majority will be not less than 350.

Pinal—FLORENCE—It is hard to estimate the vote in this county. Employees of the state are nearly all working hard for Hunt. As nearly as can be estimated, however, Olney will carry Pinal by about 200.

Maricopa—By as careful a canvass as is possible it is found that Mr. Olney will carry this county by not less than 2,000. Some place his majority as high as 5,000. Considering the work being done by the state political machine, an Olney majority of 2,000 is about the proper figure.

An analysis of the above report indicates the following:

THE PARADE OF CHAUTAUQUANS

Successful to a marked degree was the booster parade held last night to herald the advent of the big seven day Phoenix Chautauqua which will begin May 6 opposite the Arizona School of Music. Promptly at seven o'clock, lead by the First Infantry band, the chautauqua parade moved forward under the guidance of Parade Marshal B. W. Getsinger.

The official automobile, containing Gov. Hunt and his retinue, lead the automobile section. Following came the prominent city officials. In all their resplendent glory, the new fire fighting advocates, on their new apparatus constituted the next section. One hundred and fifty students of the Monroe school, carried on one of the trucks of the Lightning Delivery company, made the welkin ring as they shouted the magic word "Chautauqua" to the crowds of spectators lining the streets through which the parade passed.

The entire line of march covered five blocks and did much to notify the people of the city that the Phoenix Chautauqua is coming here for a weeks stay. Great credit for the success of the entire evening's demonstration is due B. W. Getsinger, marshal, and Dr. F. H. Redewill, who acted the director.

Following the parade, a live meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. stadium. Rev. Geo. Varney, president. A special concert was given by the First Infantry band. Secretary Harry Blair of the Y. M. C. A. gave a brief speech describing the coming chautauqua and urging that everyone aid to make it a great success. Rev. Varney introduced Mr. R. McDaniel, of Chicago, who explained to the children the great things being brought to them with the Junior Chautauqua held daily at four o'clock. Following his address Rev. Varney lauded the enterprise and told of his personal experience relative to speakers scheduled for here whom he has heard.

Tomorrow morning "Chautauqua Ticket Day" will begin. Five flying squadrons of three members each, all prominent business men, will make a whirlwind season ticket campaign throughout the business section. The various ladies organizations will handle the work in the residence sections. Phone 692 or 1536 for further particulars.

ARIZONA FINE SAYS H. M'PHEE

Commercial Superintendent of Western Union Visits Capital After Seeing Good Times in Many Arizona Mining Camps

High McPhee commercial superintendent of the Western Union, this district, who looks for things as they are, is here on a short visit. He made Phoenix one of his last stops in Arizona, because he wanted to see the mining camps and other centers of industry, before visiting the capital. "I looked for good things," he said yesterday. "And found them beyond my expectations. Business conditions are progressing at a favorable rate, and the general tone is highly optimistic. I was expecting the state of Arizona to evidence lots of prosperity, but was surprised at the actual conditions which are, I believe, the best in years."

Piloted by Manager Mann of the local Western Union office, Mr. McPhee saw Phoenix yesterday. He added to his glowing account of the state a word of good cheer for Phoenix, which he says is a worthy exponent of the general prosperity of the state. Although it reflects more the conditions in a large agricultural belt, it also indexes the situation in the huge mining district tributary to it.

You need only to look at the name of this model—or to note the air of elegance and thoroughbred smartness about its lines—to know that it was designed for such men as you would meet in America's great metropolitan center.
